Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Generally cloudy with some spots of light rain or sleet in the north especially in the morning, tending to snow about hills during the day. Becoming brighter in the afternoon with sunny spells likely in western areas, but feeling increasingly cold as a southeasterly wind becomes fresh to strong.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Cold and mostly cloudy on Thursday with widespread, mostly light, snowfall and a biting fresh to strong southeast wind. Snow clearing northeastward on Friday, but with further snow ahead of rain reaching the west at night. Remaining rather cold but winds easing during the day in most places.
