++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
England, Wales and Northern Ireland, cloudy and mild with occasional light drizzly rain, most of this over hills in the west and northwest where some heavier rain is expected along with mist and hill fog. Scotland colder and brighter, sunny spells in the north, scattered showers mainly in the west and far north.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Another wet day Monday with rain and drizzle, heaviest over hills in the west and falling as snow over hills in the north. Becoming windy at times in the northwest. Tuesday drier and brighter for a time but with more rain spreading to western areas later.
