++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloudy for many areas, with a few outbreaks of mainly light rain affecting some northern and western parts. Some bright spells and perhaps a little sunshine is most likely in the south early in the day and over southern Scotland and northern England later.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:
Unsettled with a mix of sunny intervals and showers for most areas, although the far north is likely to be more generally dry with some sunshine. It will be on the cool side for the time of year and with quite a brisk and cold northeasterly wind in many parts.
