** Valid for Broadcast at 2159 **

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Most places will have sunshine and showers, some of these rather heavy and prolonged in the morning for northwestern parts of England and North Wales especially. However, during the day, showers will become lighter and more scattered with more in the way of sunshine, especially for some southern and southwestern areas. It will feel cooler and fresher than recently in breezy northwesterly winds.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Wednesday will have sunshine and showers after a chilly start. Showers will die out Wednesday night, but wet and windy weather will spread eastwards to all areas on Thursday after a bright start in the east. It will remain cool and fresh.
