++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
There will be some sunny intervals today but also occasional showers. This will become heavy at times this afternoon across Northeast Scotland, Wales, the Midlands and Southern England. A longer spell of heavy rain is likely across East Anglia. This evening and tonight will be rather cloudy with further showers.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Wednesday and Thursday will both be rather cloudy days in most parts with further showers. These could be heavy at times, with the risk of some longer spells of rain. However, it should be drier and brighter in Southwest England and Northern Ireland.
