Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: On Friday, Moderate levels of air pollution are widely expected across large areas of southern, central and eastern England. Flow from the Continent is expected to contribute to locally produced pollutants. Low levels of air pollution expected elsewhere.

Tomorrow: Levels of air pollution falling Low across much of the UK on Saturday, with some isolated pockets of Moderate air pollution possible in parts of southeast England.

Outlook: Through the outlook period, levels of air pollution are expected to remain Low. However, isolated pockets of Moderate air pollution possible at times, mainly around population centres.
