Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A wet start across Northern Ireland and northern England, but the rain will move northeastwards across Scotland bringing hill snow and stronger winds here throughout the day. Most other parts of the UK will be dry, bright and breezy but rain will move in from the southwest during the afternoon.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:

New Year's Eve, will start very windy in the north, otherwise it will be a day of blustery showers and feeling cold. It will then be mostly dry and windy in the south on New Year's Day, but rain and hill snow affect the north at times.
