

FPUK86 EGRR 061745
Forecast for the UK.
Issued by the Met Office
at 1945 on Thursday 6 July 2006

** Valid for Broadcast at 2159 **

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Generally cloudy across much of the UK at first, but becoming brighter with sunny spells. Further patchy rain will spread across southern parts later, clearing the southeast corner through the evening. Scattered showers will breakout elsewhere, more especially across Northern Ireland and Scotland. Feeling fresher with westerly breezes.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Saturday. Dry and bright for much of the day and feeling pleasantly warm in the south and east. However, cloud will increase later bringing wet and windy weather from the west later, with possible gales in exposed northwestern parts.

Sunday. A cool windy day with sunny spells and scattered showers.
