Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Many places will start dry but showers will develop during the morning. It will then turn into a day of sunshine and showers for most places. Some of the showers during the day will be heavy with a risk of thunder. In between the showers it should feel fairly pleasant.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

The weather turns very unsettled into next week with some wet and windy weather for many parts. The heaviest of the rain and strongest winds will be in the north and west with the best of the drier weather in the south and east. Mild with no overnight frost.
