Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Sunny spells and showers across Scotland and Northern Ireland, with early cloud and rain across the far north of Scotland soon clearing away. Elsewhere, cloudy and breezier with outbreaks of rain in southern Britain, this possibly becoming heavier and more prolonged during the afternoon.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:
Heavy overnight rain in southern Britain, probably lying across central areas by Thursday morning, continuing northwards before it possibly becomes brighter later. Windy, especially in southern Britain. Friday will be brighter with sunny spells developing and a scattering of showers, mainly in the north and east. Winds slowly easing and feeling pleasantly warm in the sunshine.
