

Yellow warning
Rain & Wind

Between

00:00 Mon 30 Apr 2018 and
23:59 Mon 30 Apr 2018Heavy rain and strong winds will affect many southeastern areas of England on Monday.*What to expect

- Spray and flooding is likely to result in difficult driving conditions and possible some road closures, as well as delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Power cuts may occur, with the potential to affect other services
- Some damage to trees and other structures may occur
- Some roads and bridges may close

Further details

Heavy rain is likely to affect southeastern parts of England through Monday, peaking during the morning period. Accumulations of 25-35 mm seem likely widely, with 60-80 mm possible in places, this perhaps most likely for parts of Norfolk and the North Downs; the westward extent of these higher totals remains less certain.

Strong winds are also likely with gusts of 40-45 mph likely inland, particularly during Monday morning, and possible gusts to 50-55 mph along exposed coasts and over hills.

✓ Low likelihood of medium impacts

Yellow warning
Rain & Wind

Between
00:00 Mon 30 Apr 2018 and
23:59 Mon 30 Apr 2018

Coming from an unusual (northerly) direction may increase the likelihood of wind-related impacts. Note that these winds will also lead to large waves, and spray and overtopping around some coasts.

It may also be cold enough for a little sleet or wet snow on high ground but this is unlikely to settle.

Reason for update

The likelihood of disruption has been increased to low and the warning has been made a dual rain and wind warning. The warning has also been limited to Monday.
