Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Much of England and Wales will be rather cloudy with a few spots of rain in the Midlands and Wales during the morning. Scotland and Northern Ireland should see sunny spells and blustery showers throughout the day. Rain is expected to spread into Wales, the West Midlands and parts of northwest England by the evening.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Occasional rain is on the cards for northern and western parts of the UK. Elsewhere, it is likely to remain warm with sunny spells, although cloud amounts may increase later on Saturday bringing some rain into eastern areas by the evening.
