Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Central and southern areas will be cloudy with rain and drizzle at times through the morning. Although it should become drier and brighter for a time in the afternoon, further rain or showers are likely to spread from the west later. In the north, sunny spells and scattered showers, most of the showers over western Scotland.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Very unsettled and often cloudy with rain at times, some heavy and prolonged especially on Wednesday when it is also likely to become windy in places. Scotland often brighter or clearer at times with scattered showers, some sunny intervals by day.
