Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Thursday will be a windy day for England and Wales. Whilst today's rain will linger across the Northern Isles, we will see a mixture of sunshine and showers across most of the UK. Some of those showers will turn heavy and perhaps thundery at times, especially in the north.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Friday brings further showers for some, although not as frequent as today. This will allow more in the way of sunshine for many of us. However, Saturday signals the return of more frequent showers, although there will still be some sunshine. It will remain breezy for most of us too.
