++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Western and northern Scotland, cloudy with rain at times, some of this prolonged and heavy, especially over the hills. Elsewhere, a generally grey start, but bright or sunny intervals are expected to develop for many central and eastern areas. It will be very mild, but rather windy.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Outbreaks of rain will edge southwards on Saturday with northern and some central areas becoming brighter. After a bright start in the north Sunday, outbreaks of rain will spread eastwards during Sunday and Monday, the heaviest rain in the north. Remaining mostly mild, but cooler in the north for a time.
