Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Thundery showers will clear from the extreme southeast, otherwise rather cloudy across the UK with showers. These are likely to develop more widely during the morning, becoming heavy and prolonged, before affecting the southeast in the afternoon. It will be cool over the far north becoming locally warm elsewhere in occasional sunshine.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

In the north: Rain will clear to sunny intervals and showers. Over the south: Sunny spells and occasional showers on Saturday with rain persistent and heavy spreading east during Sunday. Temperatures near normal on Saturday generally cool on Sunday.
