Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloudy and breezy at times in the north, and feeling cooler than Monday, some showers for Scotland, perhaps a little rain in some parts of Northern Ireland later. England and Wales away from the northwest will be dry, warm and mostly sunny after overnight mist and low cloud has cleared.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
The cooler and breezier weather in the north will spread down to central then southern parts of the UK, with scattered showers on Wednesday, some heavy, although southern and western areas should become mainly dry with the best of the sunshine by Thursday.
