++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Most places will have a dull and misty day with some light drizzle from time to time. It will also be foggy at times over high ground. However, northern and some western areas should be brighter with a little sunshine in places, and it should be fairly mild.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Another dull and rather damp day on Thursday with some drizzle in places, and perhaps some heavier and more persistent rain moving northwards across eastern areas. During Friday, rain and freshening southerly winds will spread eastwards, perhaps turning brighter in the west towards evening.
