++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Northern Scotland seeing sunny spells and isolated showers after a cold start.
Southern Scotland, Northern Ireland and northern England cloudy with rain, sometimes heavy. Wales and central England also fairly cloudy with generally lighter and more intermittent rain. Southern England mainly dry and bright with some hazy sunshine.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

On Friday, Scotland and Northern Ireland mainly fine with sunny spells and a few showers in the north. Cloudier elsewhere, with rain in central areas moving south through the day. On Saturday, most places dry with sunny spells after a chilly start, but southern Britain probably somewhat cloudier and breezier.
