++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Most of the UK will have a fine start with plenty of sunshine. Only northern coasts of Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland will be cloudier with a few showers here. Elsewhere, through the day cloud will bubble up but there will be good periods of sunshine for most, with a few showers in Wales and northern Scotland. Feeling cool.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Saturday will be cloudier with rain, sometimes heavy in Northern Ireland and northern Scotland. The best of any brightness will be in eastern and southern areas where it should stay dry. Sunday will see occasional rain over most of the UK.
