Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Northern Scotland cloudy with outbreaks of rain. The rest of the UK will begin dry and quite sunny but showers affecting the west through the morning spreading to central and eastern areas during the afternoon. Some of the showers heavy and thundery. Generally warmer with light winds.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

On Monday showers locally heavy will affect England and Wales along with some sunshine. More general rain spreading south across Scotland and Northern Ireland. Sunshine and showers for all on Tuesday. The heaviest and most frequent showers over the north and east with the best of the sunshine across the south and west.
