Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Friday:-Low cloud, mist and patchy fog lifting and breaking, then mainly dry with some sunshine. However, thicker cloud may bring a few mostly light showers to some northern and eastern areas. Patchy sea fog may affect some coastal areas. Rather warm generally, although windward coasts will be cooler.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Most places dry but rather cloudy, with the best chance of any brightness in the west. Patchy rain spreading into the southwest during Saturday. Patchy rain and drizzle affecting northeastern areas at first on Sunday, extending to other northern and some central parts during the day. Temperatures near or a little normal.
