Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a chilly start in places, and for many a dry, warm and sunny day will follow. However, the north of the UK will be cloudy with a few showers, and occasional rain is also likely in some western parts. It will be windy at times in the far southwest too.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

It will be quite humid in the east on Saturday, with some heavy, thundery rain moving northeastwards across the UK. Fresher conditions will follow from the west later in the day. It will be drier on Sunday with some warm sunshine and a few showers.
