++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Much of the UK will see a fine and dry day with sunny spells. These are most likely through the morning before cloud builds later, although many coastal areas will continue to see good spells of sunshine throughout. Also, a few showers are likely to develop across Northern Ireland and western Scotland.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Saturday will see a mixture of sunshine and showers, some of which will be heavy, particularly across northeastern parts and Northern Ireland. On Sunday it is likely to be cloudy across western parts with showery outbreaks of rain, whereas eastern parts are likely to be drier and brighter.
