++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Most parts will have a bright and breezy day with sunny spells but also occasional blustery showers. However, most of these should be light and short lived. Scotland and eastern England will have a cloudy day with outbreaks of rain which will become heavy and persistent at times.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

England and Wales will have a mainly dry but also rather cloudy weekend, although some patchy rain could occur in western parts. Further north it will be cloudy and breezy with outbreaks of rain on Saturday, and the risk of some heavy and persistent rain on Sunday.
