 Valid for Broadcast at 2159 **

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Showery outbreaks of rain over northeast Scotland and perhaps also over some extreme eastern parts of England will clear in the morning.
Over western parts of Britain rather cloudy skies with a few showery outbreaks of rain at first will gradually break up in the morning, all areas of the UK then seeing sunny spells for the afternoon and only isolated showers. Very warm again in the south but a little cooler and fresher in the west.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Most places dry on Saturday with some sunshine. Warm and humid on Sunday but with thundery showers spreading northeast across many areas.
