Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Most places will start cloudy and wet with some heavy rain around, this rain lasting for much, if not, all of the day for many. However, brighter, more showery weather should spread to some western and southern areas in the afternoon. It will be windy, with a risk gales, particularly in the south and west.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Sunny spells and showers on Wednesday. Southern and eastern areas remaining dry with some sunshine on Thursday. However rain and strong winds, reaching northwestern areas on Thursday will spread southeastwards across all areas on Friday, to be followed in turn by sunshine and showers.
