Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Rain over Scotland will be heaviest in the north and east but should become lighter throughout today and tonight. Elsewhere, there will be sunshine and showers today, with some of the showers heavy and thundery with hail, especially across southern England and Wales. The showers will gradually ease overnight with many places becoming dry. It will become breezy at times.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
The unsettled theme continues on Monday with showers or rain in many places. Tuesday will be drier though, with most parts seeing some sunshine, although a few isolated showers may affect eastern counties. It will remain breezy and cool throughout.
