Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
South Wales, the Midlands, and southwest England will have periods of heavy rain in the morning. This rain will move eastwards towards London, bringing heavy rain here for the evening rush hour. Elsewhere, Scotland will see outbreaks of heavy showers, while the north and far south of England will have a bright day with the occasional light shower.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

On Thursday showers will develop in East Anglia, northern England, and Scotland, but elsewhere will be dry but mostly cloudy. On Friday a band of rain will move into Wales and England with brisk westerly winds, but Scotland will be mainly dry.
