Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
There will be some sunshine and scattered, occasionally thundery showers in the south. Further north it'll be cloudier and breezy with a few showers. It'll also become windy in northeast Scotland later with coastal gales. Most showers in the south will fade away to leave a chilly night. Further north it'll remain cloudier and windy with patchy rain in places.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

It'll be mostly dry, but often rather cloudy over the next couple of days with chilly nights following and the northerly breeze will continue to bring a few showers. The best of any sunny spells will be in the south.
