

Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0700 on Thursday 08 Sep 2011

++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Northern parts of the UK will see a mixture of sunshine and showers, before the cloudier and damper conditions spread from southern parts during the evening and overnight, with some heavier outbreaks of rain developing. Further south overnight, it will be somewhat drier, but there will still be the risk of some heavy showers.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Friday will be a warm day, with outbreaks of occasionally heavy rain clearing Scotland, with rather cloudy and rather damp conditions further south, although eastern parts may see some sunshine. On Saturday it will become windy with further outbreaks of rain, followed by showers.
