++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Friday night's rain will soon clear the northeast. Heavy showers follow this rain band from the west, with a risk of hail and thunder. Widespread gales across England and Wales, with severe gales along southwest coasts bringing a risk of disruption here.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Strong winds and showers will continue throughout Sunday, with winds gradually easing later. Showers may be heavy at times with hail, and locally wintry. It will be cooler than it has been recently. On Monday the winds will ease further, and there will be some bright spells developing.
