Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A dry and bright start for many, then another day of sunshine and showers. The showers most frequent in the north and west, where they may be heavy and thundery at times, but also perhaps forming into bands in parts of the south, leading to some large rainfall accumulations in a short space of time.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

A fine start for many on Tuesday, but showers will develop through the day, again heavy at times and possibly thundery. Wednesday will be a largely dry and fine day, though the odd shower is possible. Best of the sunshine in the west.
