Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Sunny spells and heavy showers for many areas of the UK, particularly in the west. Showers will possibly be slow moving with thunder, mainly across central and northwest England. Rain will also cross southeast England through the day, heavy at times and moving northeastwards. It will also become breezy around some coasts.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

A day of sunshine and showers on Saturday with the showers most frequent in west of the UK and will feel pleasantly warm in the sunny spells. A chance of very wet and windy weather on Sunday, most likely over England and Wales. Sunshine and showers elsewhere.
