++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A dry start across the south and east tomorrow with some sunshine to start.
Otherwise there will be strong winds and occasionally heavy rain in the north and west, with a risk of severe gales in the far west. During the day, the winds will pick up everywhere with the rain spreading south and east.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Although there will be some sunny spells on Monday and Tuesday, there'll also be some heavy, blustery showers at times, some of these will be thundery with hail and also snow is likely over the hills. Feeling colder, with overnight frosts and some icy stretches.
