Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

A dry, warm and sunny day is expected across most areas. There may be some low cloud, mist or fog at first, however this should become confined to western coasts of England and Wales through the morning. To the northwest of Scotland it will be cloudier, with with some outbreaks of light rain.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

It will remain largely dry and sunny on Saturday, although with some low cloud in the far east at first. Cloud and showers may spread into the far west later. Dry with bright spells for much of Sunday, although with a few spots of light rain possible.
