Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Sunday rather cloudy with showers or outbreaks of rain across southern and eastern Scotland, England and Wales, with some heavy showers developing across eastern England. Remaining places dry and fine. Wales and southwest England will become mainly dry during the afternoon.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Some showers on Monday across northern England and eastern Scotland in the morning, otherwise mainly fine and dry. Some rain may spread into western areas later in the day. Rain, heavy at times, will spread across all parts on Tuesday, but it will become drier over Wales and southwest England later.
