++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
A windy morning, with sunny spells and scattered showers. The showers heaviest and most frequent towards the west and north. Winds will ease through the afternoon. Later in the day, rain will arrive in the southwest, and overnight will spread across many southern parts of England and Wales, heavy at times. Otherwise, clear spells and a few showers.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

A chilly start to Monday, then largely dry and bright with some Autumn sunshine, and just a few showers. A spell of wet and windy weather will cross the UK on Tuesday, followed by showers, some of which will be heavy.
