++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Eastern and many central areas will start grey and misty. However, low cloud will burn back to North Sea coasts, and then most places will have long spells of sunshine. It will feel warm away from the East Coast, and southern parts of England will be less windy.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

There will be very little change. Many eastern and central areas will start grey and misty, but the cloud will retreat back to eastern and northwestern coasts to leave most places with warm and sunny days. Later on Saturday, some rain may reach northwestern Scotland.
