Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Early rain should clear southeast of England in the morning. Otherwise sunny spells and blustery showers are expected across the UK on Friday, with some heavy and squally showers, wintry over northern hills. Driest over eastern England with the best of the sunshine here too.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Wet and windy weather will spread across the country on Saturday, followed by showers into the northwest though the afternoon. Sunday will see a mixture of sunshine and blustery showers everywhere, with some heavy ones mixed in. Some of the showers are also likely to be wintry on northern hills.
