Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Breezy with occasional showers in Northern Ireland and western Scotland.
Elsewhere, a few places seeing rain for a time in the morning but becoming generally dry during the afternoon with some lengthy sunny spells developing, the best of these in the west. Another warm day for most places.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Windy across Northern Ireland and western Scotland on Saturday, with scattered showers. Elsewhere, mainly dry and warm with sunny spells and a few light showers in western areas. On Sunday, rain in the northwest will spread southeastwards across much of the UK, with brighter conditions returning to western parts later.
