++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Mostly cloudy today and tonight, with outbreaks of rain over much of Scotland and northern England, and occasional light rain elsewhere. The best of any cloud breaks are likely over Wales and southwest England. Windy in the northeast with most light winds elsewhere today, but becoming quite chilly generally as a moderate southeasterly wind develops overnight.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Generally cloudy with some spots of light rain or sleet on Wednesday, especially in the morning, but becoming brighter in the afternoon. Mostly cloudy on Thursday with widespread, mostly light, snowfall. Feeling cold with brisk east or southeasterly winds on both days.
