Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloud and patchy light rain or drizzle will continue across southeastern areas of England, with a northerly breeze taking the edge of temperatures a little. Elsewhere though it will be a largely sunny and dry day but some fog will be slow to clear from parts of Central Scotland.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Most places will stay largely dry and bright on Monday but cloud and intermittent light rain across southeastern areas of England will spread slowly across remaining parts of the UK during Tuesday. Winds will be light and temperatures will be a little above normal.
