++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Some early mist and fog patches in places, especially in the Midlands and eastern England. Northwestern parts may be cloudy. Through the morning the fog clears giving most areas a pleasant sunny day. Sharp showers are possible in Northern Ireland and western Scotland. Later in the day cloud edges into southern areas, bringing rain to the far south by dusk.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Most areas will be cloudy on Friday with some rain at times, mainly in northern areas. The far south may be brighter later in the day. Saturday sees northern areas remaining cloudy, and the far southwest may have some rain.
