Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Tomorrow will stay mainly dry but often cloudy. The odd shower is possible across northern and eastern parts. It will be chilly along North Sea coasts, but warmer in the west where there will be a good deal of sunshine.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Monday and Tuesday will stay dry for most of us with the best of the warm sunshine likely in the west and later in the south. It will feel cooler and cloudier in the east. Many places will be chilly overnight and the odd patch of frost is possible in rural areas.
