++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
It will be cloudy and windy for many parts of the UK with the best of any brighter spells to the east of higher ground. Heavy rain is expected across western Scotland. This rain will move slowly southeast overnight. Ahead of the rain it will be very mild but windy with gales across exposed areas. Southern counties will remain dry.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Monday will bring sunshine across northern areas with isolated blustery showers for Scotland. Cloudy conditions are forecast for southern areas as rain spreads slowly southwards. Tuesday will be windy in the north with heavy rain but drier in the southeast.
