++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Today will be generally cooler than yesterday across the UK. It will still be hot in parts of the southeast, but there will be some rain in central and northern areas. Tonight will be dry in the far north and far south. Elsewhere will be mostly cloudy, with some rain, and it will be a chilly night for northern Scotland.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

On Saturday it will still be warm and humid in the south, but cooler in the north. There may be spots of rain over central areas too. Sunday will be similar, although with the risk of thunder in the south.
