++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
There will be further heavy, persistent rain in central parts with a risk of flooding, this clearing slowly west during evening. Northeastern coasts will be cloudy with rain at times, elsewhere it will be brighter with showers. Breezy in the north.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Heavy rain on Saturday, especially across the north and southwest. Drier elsewhere with some scattered showers and bright spells, these most likely in central and southeastern parts. On Sunday there will be rain or showers which will be heavy and slow moving and could turn thundery with just a few bright spells.
