Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Outbreaks of rain will affect northern and western Scotland throughout the day, becoming more widespread across central and eastern areas on occasion but easing toward the evening with some brighter spells developing. Elsewhere, there will be some sunny spells but with showers or outbreaks of rain at times, these becoming mainly confined to eastern parts of England by evening.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Thursday will be dry for most parts of the UK with some bright or sunny spells at times. Rain spreads into central and northern areas on Friday, becoming heavy in the west, while southern and eastern areas remain largely dry.
