Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

A cold and icy start to the day. Outbreaks of light rain, sleet and snow will continue across some parts, especially towards the south, though will gradually ease for most into the afternoon. The best of the dry and bright conditions will be across parts of northern England. Feeling cold for most.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Largely cloudy and cold on Tuesday, but mainly dry across the UK. An overnight frost and ice risk. Turning wet and windy from the west on Wednesday, with rain, proceeded by snow in the north, spreading eastwards through the day.
